WHEREAS,

- The Student Government is the official governing body of the Student Association and exists to represent the present and long term best interest of the Student Association in the formulation of University policy and in the fulfillment of the University mission; and
- Truman Week takes place on August 17-23, and
- Truman Week is a series of events for the purpose of helping new students adapt to living at Truman State University, and
- Truman Week is the first opportunity for new students to interact with members of University organizations, and
- Student Government wishes to maintain a presence during Truman Week to encourage new students to participate in Student Government, and
- It would be valuable for Student Government to continue to provide giveaways for new students to promote Student Government's name on campus, and (3000)
- Members of Student Government will need to move back early to promote participation and awareness in Student Government, and (450)
- Student Senate intends to sponsor several Center for Student Involvement events, including The Big Bash on August 23, and (300)
- Miscellaneous expenses may be needed to cover unforeseen costs associated with Truman Week.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT,

- The Student Government plays a significant role in the 2013 Truman Week to help students adapt to life at Truman State University, and,
- The Student Government uses this opportunity to encourage students to learn and participate in Student Government

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT OF TRUMAN STATE DIRECTS THAT,

- The Student Government of Truman State University should spend no more than $3,750 to fund Student Government activities during the 2013 Truman Week program, and,
- Additional copies of this resolution are disseminated to Student Government President Matt Cooper, University President Troy Paino, Dean of Student Affairs Lou Ann Gilchrist, The Office of Special Collections, and the Truman Media Network.
