Auxiliary Reports

- a. Speaker of the Student Senate
 - i. Rules Revision: we talked about constitutional duties this week, as well as clearing up some language about some other things.
 - ii. Marketing focus group: I had wonderful time, one general thing coming out of it: Truman has a lot of good things going on already, we just need to emphasize that Truman is a smart choice for students, because you can go places professionally and really grow as a student by coming here.
- b. Academic Affairs Chair

 - 1. We're starting to email representatives, so hopefully we'll hear back soon.
 - 2. I haven't heard from Laura about needing a chaperone, but I don't think we have to have one anyway.
 - 3. I'm leaning toward March 29, hopefully everything will work out weather-wise so we don't conflict with Purple Friday.
 - ii. Meet-up with Mizzou StuGov: they're about to have elections, so maybe it can happen at the end of the semester or the beginning of the fall.
- d. Environmental Affairs Chair
 - i. No report.
- e. Student Affairs Chair
 - i. No report.
- f. Diversity Chair
 - i. Everything is fabulous! I'm so excited!
 - ii. Thanks for tabling, Deanna!
 - 1. Schmidt: she has worked really hard on this, props to her!
 - iii. Poster is done, it looks great!
- g. Appropriations Committee Chair
 - i. We have three applications we're considering right now, and the one that was submitted earliest is higher priority because of the budget crunch.

1. Hogan: Laura suggested that because we did not announce that we were almost out of money, we might consider reallocating money to Appropriations. We currently have around $450, and we might have some more once we finalize one particular funding disbursement, not all of that money is going out. We kind of feel bad because we have still been talking with some applicants even though we're running out of money, so we'll try to work something out so that they get at least some money. For the one application that Joon mentioned, we'll probably give them $400 for food. We do have around $250 left over from WLC, so we could potentially use that for appropriations.
 2. Leppanen: I'm not opposed to reallocating, but I think our priority should be the Labyrinth. If we have enough money to fund both the Labyrinth and re-allocation, great. Let's nail down the Labyrinth funding first, and then we can deal with appropriations.
- h. Health, Wellness and Safety Chair
- i. Finalists for FMHH: Eric Dickson, Music; James Cianciola, Communication; Nancy Daley-Moore, Health Science; Priscilla Riggle, English; Brent Buckner, Biology.
 - ii. Colby is working on the safety walk that we had previously discussed doing.
- i. Sexual Assault Prevention Designee
- i. No report.
- j. Purple Friday Subcommittee Chair
- i. We'll be hanging posters up this week, everything is ordered for Goof Off Day.
 - ii. Ethics Justice: Info session on March 21, 6:00 p.m. The first round of posters has been ordered, these will be for encouraging people to run.
