

An Executive Order Establishing A Women’s Leadership Conference Ad Hoc Committee of the Student Government

WHEREAS,

- The Student Government is the official governing body of the Student Association and exists to represent the present and long term best interest of the Student Association in the formulation of the University policy and in the fulfillment of the University’s mission; and
- Truman State University is currently at an opportune time to encourage and celebrate female leadership on campus; and
- A Women’s Leadership Conference would effectively collesce the current state of the University with tangible benefits for the Truman community; and
- The creation of a committee to oversee a Women’s Leadership Conference would allow for cohesion and organization in its planning process; and
- Student Government planned and executed successful Women’s Leadership Conferences during the 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 academic years; and
- The creation of a committee to oversee the planning and hosting of this conference will help to coordinate Student Government’s involvement and ensure the conference’s actualization and quality;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT,

- I, Deanna Schmidt, President of the Student Association, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Standing Rules of the Student Government, do hereby issue this executive order to establish a Women’s Leadership Ad Hoc Committee of the Student Government; and
- Charge this committee with planning a Women’s Leadership Conference in February of 2020; and
- The Women’s Leadership Conference Ad Hoc Committee shall be authorized until the Spring Transitional meeting and subject, commensurate with Article I, Section 3, Clause 5 in the Constitution of the Truman State University Student Government, to renewal by the 2020-2021 administration of the Student Government.

Respectfully submitted on this, the 6th day of October 2019,

Deanna Schmidt
President of the Student Association
