

An Executive Order Establishing a Homecoming Ad Hoc Committee of the Student Government

WHEREAS,

- The Student Government is the official governing body of the Student Association and exists to represent the present and long term best interest of the Student Association in the formulation of University policy and in the fulfillment of the University's mission; and
- Truman State University's 2022 Homecoming Activities will take place on October 3rd-8th; and
- The Student Government has historically participated in homecoming activities; and
- Last year, members of the homecoming ad hoc committee, found that this was an effective way to plan homecoming activities; and
- Homecoming planning fits under the jurisdiction of several committees, including the External Affairs, Student Affairs, and Purple Friday (sub)committees; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT

- I, Kennedy Cooper, President of the Student Association on, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Standing Rules of the Student Government, do hereby issue this executive order to establish a Homecoming Ad Hoc Committee of the Student Government; and
- Charge this committee with planning the Student Government's involvement in the 2022 Homecoming events; and
- Appoint Blaine Smallwood as the Chair of the Homecoming Ad Hoc Committee; and
- Recommends that the Student Government participate in the homecoming parade.

Respectfully Submitted on this, the 25th day of September, 2022.
